Property Description

Location: Spain

Welcome to Altos Del Maria, a vibrant community of expats and locals that are in search of peaceful, tranquil living amongst Panama's cooler climate and lush nature. Altos Del Maria is only 30-40 minutes away from Coronado and the beaches, allowing you to live away from the heat and busy coastal towns, whilst being close enough to benefit from all the amenities it has to offer. The property is located less than 5 minutes from the main gate, making access a breeze. Upon arriving at the property you will be blessed with a stunning view of the valley and Pichacho, the peak of the Altos Del Maria mountains. The property offers balconies, and porches that offer 100% privacy and stunning visuals all around. The house has received a thorough Electrical and plumbing update with extremely good equipments to make sure you will never miss a day of water, or electricity, especially with the personal Generator that supplies the entire home with power for approx 24 hours, which is more than enough to deal with the short power cuts that may occur. The house has large windows that allow natural light to brighten up the home and high ceilings to allow the air to circulate and never have a feeling of heat or humidity. This property has been the pride and joy of its current owner who has had a hard time letting go of his home, but has decided that he would like for others to enjoy it as much as he did. DO not miss your chance to visit this stunning property in one of Panama's most delightful mountain communities.
